Sixth Fair aggregate for Lois Yaremkevich

Quilt show even bigger than last year's

The first name on the Elk Point Fair aggregate trophy, way back in 1980, was that of Lois Yaremkevich. Last year, her name went on the plaque for the fifth time, in the final space on that trophy. This year, her name will be the first to adorn a new trophy.

On her way to winning her sixth Grand Aggregate award, Mrs. Yaremkevich picked up wins in the Seniors Fair, sponsored by Irene Magnusson, Canning, sponsored by the Empress Restaurant and Baking, sponsored by Elk Point Co-op. The Grand Aggregate award was sponsored by Anadarko, with her keeper trophy sponsored by CJ Petroleum.

Second in the aggregate race, with an award sponsored by Petrovera, went to Ina Gillespie, while Rose Kozicky won the third place award from Golden Loaf Bakery, as well as section wins in House Plants, sponsored by Meadowview Gardens and Greenhouse, and Vegetables, sponsored by Cal's Home Hardware.

Kelsey Lindquist was winner of the Junior Fair award, sponsored by Danin Office Supplies, as well as the Junior Vegetables and Junior Flowers awards. Jennifer Flanders won the 18 and Over division of Creative Writing, Sara Kozicky the Youth division and Kristen Antonio the Junior division, all sponsored by the Elk Point Review. Entries were up in both Junior Fair and Creative Writing.

Lesia Sherwin was the winner of the Home Town Grocers award for Photography, with Jan Kozicky and Melissa Breen tied for the Junior win. Melissa also won the Junior award in Arts, Crafts and Hobbies, where Christine Lajeunesse won the adult award sponsored by Elk Point Insurance and Realty. Ms Lajeunesse also won the Sewing section sponsored by Cheri Lindquist, with Travis Lindquist taking the Junior Sewing win.

Angelina Christenson accepted the Toronto Dominion Bank award in Knitting, Crochet and Weaving, with Laura Antonio winning the Junior division. Debbie Orr picked up the prize from Woody's Trophy and Gifts in the Fresh Fruit section. Adaline Zenko topped the Cut Flowers division, for an award from Alberta Treasury Branch. There were no entries in the Grains and Hay division this year.

Fair Board chair Verona Lea Flanders said entries in this year's fair were down about 200 from the previous WORLD CHAMPION CHUCKWAGON DRIVER Buddy Bensmiller (left) accepted the keys to a brand new Dodge dually truck on Heritage Day, in recognition of his win of the World Professional Chuckwagon Association Championship.

Buddy Bensmiller wins World

Buddy Bensmiller, the pride of Dewberry, Alberta, won his second World Professional Chuckwagon championship in Strathmore, Alberta on the Heritage Day weekend, outdistancing his closest rival, Jason Glass of High River, by a full 46.5 points for the season.

Monday evening, in front of a huge World Finals crowd, Bensmiller accepted the keys to a 2001 Dodge dually emblazoned with the World Champion title. Both the truck and a fifth wheel travel trailer are his to use for a year, until the 2002 championship finals.

With 29 years of driving behind him, Bensmiller is no stranger to championship spotlights, having won his first World

Professional championship in 1997, eight Canadian Professional Chuckwagon Association championships, nine Cheyenne Frontier Days championships, two Calgary Stampede Rangeland Derby championships, a North American Chuckwagon championship and an Edmonton Klondike Days chuckwagon championship, as well as being named the 2000 WPCA Chuckwagon Person of the Year. This year, Bensmiller also picked up the Ponoka Stampede championship.

Bensmiller capped off the evening by winning $1864 in the eighth heat Dash for Cash.

The evening was not all good for the Bensmiller family, however. There were a few tense moments when Buddy's oldest son, David, was loaded into an ambulance after being knocked down by Barry Hodgson's lead horses as he heaved the stove into Bruce Risdale's wagon. His horse ran backwards around the track but was caught in time to prevent collisions with the oncoming wagons.

David's 18-year-old brother Kurt had better luck, his 16th place finish for the season qualifying him for the 2002 Calgary Stampede Rangeland Derby.

Neal Walgenbach of Stettler won the Dodge Pro Tour title, winning the ninth heat over Rick Fraser, Jason Glass and Jerry Bremner. Dale Grey, a four time Canadian Professional Chuckwagon Association was the quilt show, with a total of 67 quilts on display, up a full dozen from last year. Oldest exhibits in this year's show were a Log Cabin design crafted in 1870 by Violet McFadyen's aunt, Martha Greenfield, at the age of 16, and a crazy quilt crafted by N. W. E. King of New York in the early 1900s. Other heirlooms included a crib quilt made for Jim Orr by his grandmother and a quilt made in 1934 by Violet McFadyen and her mother, Susan Burnett. Also by Mrs. McFadyen was an Alberta 75th Anniversary quilt created in 1980 from scraps from suits and dresses made for special occasions.

Several crib quilts were on display, one made by the late Dorothy "Buzzy"

Pelechosky.

Quilts made from recycled jeans and recycled winter coats shared the spotlight with cross-stitched and appliqued designs, as well as quilt designs of all kinds, from Irish Chain to bear paw to a charm quilt made from triangles of no less than 880 different fabrics. Together, the quilts made a fascinating kaleidoscope of color and design, a delightful backdrop for Elk Point's Fair 2001.

Drug bust at Laurier Lake

On August 9, 2001, members of the Elk Pointy RCMP and Edmonton Drug Unit executed search warrants on two properties near Laurier Lake. During the search of one of the properties, members located an outdoor marijuana growing operation consisting of 53 marijuana plants as well as an extensive amount of materials used in the operation. At the residence, members discovered smaller amounts of packaged marijuana as well as a number of firearms, including one in a prohibited category and a large amount of ammunition. All plants, drugs, firearms and related materials were seized on site. The net weight of the plants was approximately 207 lbs. with an expected marijuana yield of at least 212 ounces. The approximate street value of the plants seized would be in excess of $63,000.

Lloyd Victor Keast, 58, of Laurier Lake has been charged with several offenses including production of a controlled substance, possession for the purpose of trafficking, possession of a prohibited weapon, and unsafe storage of firearms. He is due in court for first appearance on August 16, 2001.

Summer is almost over, school is almost in!

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

Yes, summer is almost over and our children will soon be going back to school. How are all you parents doing? Are you ready? Are you prepared to send your children back to school?

Speaking of preparing for school and all the expenses that go with that, have you enough in the family budget? Oh no, I probably lost some of you on that question.

There is a story told of an immigrant father who ran his business very simple, keeping his accounts payable in a shoe box, his accounts receivable on a spindle, and his cash in the cash register.

"I don't see how you can run your business this way," said the man's son. "How do you know what your profit is?"

"Son," answered the businessman, "when I got off the boat, I had only the pants I was wearing. Today your sister is an art teacher, your brother is a doctor, and you're an accountant. I have a car, a home, and a good business. Everything is paid for. So you add it all up, subtract the pants, and there's my profit."

I thought that story was cute. After all, it is easy to understand that after awhile after helping our children get their education, we "don't dare keep track" of how much we have spent to help them out. Education does cost more than the basic tuition and books. As parents, we would just want to see our children able to do what they want to do and be happy.

So a word to our children. How important is your education? Here is one example in the following story.

The car simply would not run. The mechanic who was called in lifted the hood, reached inside, gave a twist of the wrist to a little mechanism — and all was well.

"What do I owe you?"

"One hundred and ten dollars," said the mechanic.

"Good heavens!" said the car owner. "That seems like an awful lot for just twisting a little gadget. How do you itemize it?"

"Well," said the mechanic, "ten dollars for twisting the little gadget. A hundred dollars for knowing which little gadget to twist."

Another cute story. So to all you parents — best wishes with your profit and to all you students — best wishes with gaining your knowledge.

Busy summer at Fort George and Buckingham House

By Mary Easthope
Fort George and Buckingham
House Historic Site

We have received many visitors this month from all over the country. It has been great to see quite a few local visitors come to see us at the Fort this week. The daily stats have been about 15 to 20 people a day. We never know how many people we are going to get so we are very happy to see the numbers go up.

This week we have been preparing ourselves for the Forts des Prairies Jamboree, which is coming up on Sunday, August 26. Advertising has taken a big part in this event. Public service announcements have gone out to every local radio station and we are also starting to put up posters in all local towns. Some TV stations have also been contacted with the hope to receive some people that are not local to this event. With all this advertising we hope to have a lot of people attend our event.

We are still accepting performers for our jamboree and our list is quite long. We have all kinds of different performers so you can listen to and watch all kinds of entertainment.

Remember about the tall tale contest where you get a chance to win a prize for the best story told.

If you don't get a chance to see wildlife very often, come out and walk on our path. Each day we see rabbits, deer, moose, skunk, gophers and squirrels. We haven't had any sightings of bears yet this year but last year a bear came to visit us a couple times.

Day camps are still going strong. Last week the kids went on a canoe trip down the river. We started at the Elk Point Bridge and travelled to the landing at the Fort. This week the theme is friends and foes. Our day camps provide a great knowledge of the fur trade and are different from just playing games all the time. I believe that the kids get a great experience out of it that will last for the rest of their lives.

If you're looking for a day of a little out of the ordinary come join the staff at Fort George and Buckingham House for a hike down the path, a tour in our gallery or even just a look at our wonderful scenery.

Summer's more than half over!

By Jennifer Flanders
Tourist Information Clerk

Hello! I'm back! So, how's everybody's summer going? Good, I hope. Can you believe that July is just — BOOM! — gone.

Unbelievable. Anyway, here's a little summary of the people who stopped in to see me in July:

1st - Canada Day - 2 little guys stopped in to see what was inside the tourist info. booth, then came back for more candy.

4th — A total of 10 people (a record!) stopped in for guides, maps and directions.

5th — Only one visitor, a guy in for some guides.

6th — A guy in for some info. on Lloyd (Thanks for dropping by J.)

7th — 4 people in for guides

8th — A couple looking for Peter Fiddler

11th — 3 people in for guides

12th — A lady in for guides; a man in for a B.C. map

13th — A guy in for guides; a couple from New Brunswick; 2 people in for directions

14th — A couple of bicyclers in for guides and a map

18th — A guy looking for postcards; a couple looking for the ball diamonds

19th — A couple looking for the mural; a really cute guy and his dad came in looking for the ball diamonds; a lady and her granddaughter in for SK and AB guides

20th — A guy from B.C.; a lady in for guides

21st — 3 people in for directions and 2 ladies in for guides

25th — A lady in for a camp guide; a really nice guy in for info. on Heinsburg and this area

26th — 2 guys in for SK guides and maps

27th — A couple in for a map and guides

28th — My family (Nelson) reunion; a guy needing directions.

Hope to see you soon!

Charting a New Course for the Workers' Compensation System

Minister Clint Dunford has committed to work with industry, labour, injured workers, the WCB, the Appeals Commission and the public to address outstanding issues about workers' compensation at a symposium on September 17 and 18, 2001 in Edmonton.

We would like to hear from Albertans interested in participating in this symposium. Space is limited so participants will be selected from among those who register to attend.

The Workers' Compensation system will be made more timely, transparent, and accountable.

what's NEWS at the LIBRARY?

Just two more weeks for Summer Reading Program

By Ashley Larson
Summer Reading Program

Only two more weeks for the summer reading program. The summer is moving fast. We are looking forward to the Field Trip to Fort George and Buckingham House on Monday the 13th for the pre-school kids and Wednesday the 15th for the elementary kids. We are meeting at 1:00 pm at the library before we leave. Come to the library and pick up a permission slip if you haven't already.

Last week's themes were dragons (pre-school) and native legends (elementary). We made some colorful dragons and dream catchers and there were five of the pre-school kids and seven of the elementary kids.

New Books

Point Deception by Marcia Muller -- A thump and a yowl of pain made Rho drop the evidence bag. She twisted and clawed at her slingbag for her revolver. Fear shot through her ...

The Bishop and the Bagger Girl of St. Germain by Andrew Greeley -- A priest has gone missing in Paris, and Bishop Ryan is sent to the rescue. The missing cleric is not just an ordinary Dominican friar, but because in a very short time Frere Jean-Claude became a t.v. superstar. Loved by everyone except, of course, the French hierarchy, the church, state, and television community.

Hostage by Robert Crais -- An ex-con with delusions of grandeur and his tag-along brother unwittingly team up with a psychopath, one wrong way from a meltdown. When their late afternoon joyride turns into a random act of violence, they take a family hostage in the affluent bedroom community of Bristo Camino. Enter chief of Police Jeff Talley, a stressed out former LAPD SWAT negotiator who is hiding from the past. Plunged back into the high pressure world, Talley soon learns that his nightmare has only begun.

Summer Reading Program -- Ages 3-6 are on Mondays at 1:30 and ages 7-11 are on Wednesdays at 1:30 pm.

Economic minister in Elk Point Wednesday

Alberta's Economic Development Minister, Mark Norris and his family will be in St. Paul and Elk Point tomorrow.

The minister, his wife and two children are expected to tour around the area, taking in some of the local sights. These will include stops in Mallaig to see 'Buffalo Alley' and a ride on the Iron Horse Trail.

The County of St. Paul and Lac La Biche-St. Paul MLA Ray Danyluk will be hosting the minister in St. Paul.

Local dignitaries will be speaking on local, positive economic development items. Minister Norris, according to a MLA office memo, will then provide some wrap-up comments.

Minister Norris' visit will take place Wednesday, Aug. 15, and the session is by invitation only.

For more information, contact the MLA's constituency office at 780-645-6999.

Political hopefuls invited to orientation

By Steven Heywood
St. Paul Journal

Those interested in running for a seat on municipal and county council, or for school and health boards, are being given the change to find out what the job's all about.

On Wednesday, and at other times around the province, the University of Alberta and the Alberta Ministry of Municipal Affairs is hosting a candidates' orientation session. Tomorrow's gathering will be in Vermilion at the Super 8 Motel, lead by instructor Jean Byron.

"Our experience has been most of the people out to these sessions are people running for municipal office," Byron says, adding this year it's changed with the addition of school and health board elections.

The first part of the session in Vermilion, Byron continues, is a run down of the Alberta municipal act. Then, a discussion on the roles and legal responsibilities of elected officials.

"There are different requirements, different must-dos," Byron states. "It's amazing how many people who run have never attended a council meeting."

She adds many people simply have a 'bee in their bonnet' and are running on a single issue. Many do not even know what the job of a local politician is all about. Byron says these sessions give these people more information before the run for office.

"We want to encourage people to run," Byron says, "but we also want them to have an idea of the commitment. They will be in there for three years."

Part of the orientation includes lessons in time management (family, work, public office) - very important to avoid burnout. Byron says she will also talk about campaigning and how it's done in large cities compared to smaller towns.

The University and government ministry holds 10 to 15 of these sessions prior to each election. Byron says the round saw about 400 people attend.
